

GOOD MOURNING (Garage version)
(Ad Vanderveen)

Intro:

Am

Chorus:

Had me a good mourning like you said

Am

Good mourning that's what I had

Am7

And I knew I had it coming cause the times were pretty bad

G

Had a good mourning like you said

F

D7

Got a coffee and a guitar and the sunlight streaming in

Am

Thinking if I made it this far I could get through anything

Am

Not the end of all the trouble but a clean break to begin

G

Coffee and a guitar and the sunlight streaming in

F

D7

Chorus

And the feeling's getting lighter lighter by the day

And I know pretty soon the cold will melt away

And I know for all the changes there will be a price to pay

But the feeling's getting lighter now lighter by the day

Chorus

And the weight is off my shoulder and the load is off my back

And I'm no longer feeling like I'm on a dead end track

And I wanna keep it working and I know the whip will crack

But the weight is off my shoulder and the load is off my back

Chorus